BIRTH OF THE BOOMERANG

The boomerang originated in many ancient civilizations. King Tut had an exquisite collection. A 20,000-year old boomerang, made from the ivory of a mammoth tusk, was discovered in a European cave.

The oldest wooden boomerangs came from Australia--around 10,000 years ago. Australian aborigines are one of the few ancient cultures that did not develop the bow and arrow for hunting; the boomerang became their primary weapon, vital to their survival.

The hunting type of boomerang was actually a “throwing stick” or “hunting stick”, much larger and heavier than the modern boomerang, and did not return when thrown.

The returning boomerang was probably discovered accidentally by a hunter who was working to refine a hunting stick. The returning type of boomerang is believed to have been used by ancient cultures for sport and play.

“Boomerang” is also a class of UFOs, first reported over Pine Bush, New York more than forty years ago.

None has ever returned.

Till now.

"You're traveling through another dimension, A dimension not only of sight and sound but of mind; A journey into a wondrous land whose boundaries are that of imagination. That's the signpost up ahead – your next stop..."

Note: "The Pine Bush Boomerang" is pure fantasy.

TUCKER CARLSON —tonight—

"Oh, UFOs, they're spooky and kinda funny. Crazy people believe in them. Up until you get to the line, 'The Pentagon admits it doesn't know what in the world this is.' That's all you need to know. From a national security perspective, that's a very big problem."

"Look at this thing! It's traveling much faster than it should. How many aircraft do we know can dive into the ocean? But these craft effortlessly go back and forth between the water and the air. Our missiles cannot do that. The stresses would be enough to rip the metal apart."

"UFOs may pose a real threat to the United States, and the US military does not care. The conflicts the Pentagon says it's preparing for seem comically small and outdated."

The Advanced Aerospace Threat Identification Program (AATIP 2007-2012) involved a Defense Department to study first-hand experiences by military servicemen, civilian experiences, and a trove of metal alloys recovered from the UFOs in question.

The program picked up where Project Blue Book left off in the late '60s, when it concluded that most UFO phenomena could be written off as having a mundane explanation, despite over 700 sightings that remained officially unexplained.

“We don’t know what they are...yet!

“The Pentagon assessment on UFOs revealed no concrete evidence of extraterrestrial technology underpinning the bizarre aerial phenomena. If it isn’t alien technology, then that leaves two alternatives. Either this is secret US technology that we’ve managed to keep secret even from ourselves, or Russia and/or China have leap-frogged our own technological development, which has escaped the attention of our entire intelligence apparatus.”

“What do we know about UFOs?”

“First off, 95% of all UFO reports are fake! Birds, balloons, drones, military aircraft, weather inversions, meteorites, and hoaxes!”

“And the other 5%?”

“We don’t know. And that includes the Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’!”

“Your take? An oddly-shaped asteroid or an ET starship?”

“We don’t know, but we will find out!”

“And until then?”

“I bring you a warning: Everyone of you listening to my voice, tell the world, tell this to everybody wherever they are. Watch the skies. Everywhere.”

“Keep looking. Keep watching the skies.”

One thousand feet over Pine Bush...

“Good lord! Is half the state in Pine Bush?”

“The NY UFO Bloc! And we’ve got to win it!”

On the ground less than an hour later...

“All waiting for the ‘Boomerang’.”

“And if this mythical UFO doesn’t appear?”

UFOs have not been uncommon in Great Britain. In recent years, there have been many sightings of groups of slowly moving lights in the night sky, which can be easily explained as Chinese lanterns. Undertaken between 1997 and 2000, Project Condign concluded that all the investigated sightings of unidentified aerial phenomena in the UK could be attributed to misidentified but explicable objects, or poorly understood natural phenomena.

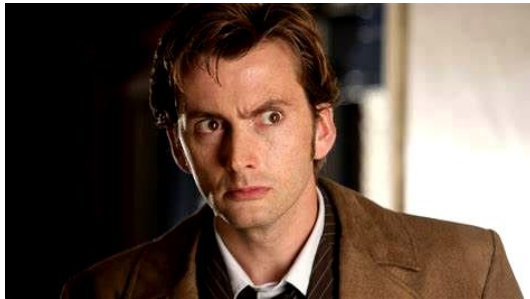

However, the Pine Bush “Boomerang” was special, requiring the Commonwealth’s most renowned specialists.

"As you requested, Your Majesty, the Doctors are here!"

*"Excellent, Prime Minister!
Please, bring them in!"*

"By Jove! A space rock?"

"Or a huge starship!"

"Great excuse for a party!"

"Or are they sheep before the slaughter?"

"Doctors, please! Is this 'Pine Bush Boomerang' a threat to the United Kingdom?"

"An AI attack! The Daleks!"

"Or the Cybermen!"

*“Thank you, Doctors!
Anything else I should know?”*

“Mr. President, the ‘Boomerang’ is coming closer and closer, but it will not hit earth!

*“It’ll miss us by some five thousand miles.
You may be able to catch a glimpse of it as it shoots by!”*

“So the ‘Boomerang’ poses no direct threat to America and the world. Thank God!”

“Not quite, Mr. President! Pine Bush has been overwhelmed! They’ll need Federal aid to clean up the mess!”

“And the UFO crowd? The ‘Boomerang’s’ bigger than an aircraft carrier. Those ‘Believers’ traveled hundreds, thousands of miles expecting Close Encounters!”

“What now?”

“The ‘Boomerang’ will do just that, using the gravitation pull of the earth to sling on outa here!”

“Leaving us, Mr. President, with a new mystery on our hands. We know who won the 2020 election, and that no space alien ever came near Roswell, New Mexico!

“And the Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’? Alien Rock Star or just a rock?”

“UFOlogists ‘round the world will be debating till Doomsday!”

"Ladies and gentlemen, seeing is believing!"

IS THE TRUTH IN PINE BUSH?

“As unbelievable as the latest UAR is the size of the crowd at the Pine Bush festival!”

“A seemingly endless sea of humanity in all its colors, ages and genders awaiting...”

“The Pine Bush Boomerang”...Proof positive that we are not alone in the Universe or the biggest BIG LIE in New York history!”

“Where’s our ‘Boomerang’?”

“Oh, show some guts and confidence, Director!”

“Sheer chaos! I want those Pine Bush Museum fools arrested!”

“Easy, Senator! Let’s find out the truth first!”

“Our ‘fifteen minutes of fame’ or ten to twenty years for God knows how many charges!”

“Keep watching the skies! The ‘Boomerang’ will come to our rescue!”

“Your Fest has become a riot in waiting!”

“You non-believers of little faith!”

“The Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’ has made fools of New Yorkers!”

“No! We’ve made New York ‘UAP Central’!”

“Big, blue, beautiful, empty sky, proving beyond a shadow of a doubt that the whole UFO ‘community’ is a conspiracy, a hoax, nothing new to true Americans!”

“This Pine Bush multitude is about to lose their patience! A riot!”

At that moment...

"Holy...!"

"You were saying?"

A roar rose up from Pine Bush not heard in New York since Woodstock!

As quickly as it appeared, the Pine Bush 'Boomerang' was gone.

“What does this mean?”

“We keep our jobs!”

“With benefits?”

One week later, sanitation workers from five different New York counties were still cleaning up Pine Ridge and its sudden suburbs.

Also cleaning up, on TVs and PCs and cel phones around the world, the staff of the Pine Bush UFO and Paranormal Museum!

“The Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’ – What happened and what happens now?”

“Quite a feat, Director! Thanks to the ‘Boomerang’ you turned a hole-in-the-wall into the nerve center of the UAP ‘Movement!’”

“A minor item in a maximum-impact story. UAPs are a mystery! Incredible things are happening and we’ve got to figure out how and why!”

“The Pine Bush clean-up is costing millions! Will local taxes skyrocket?”

“The ‘Boomerang’ became an event unmatched in UFO/Paranormal history! Merchandise sales will cover all costs!

“Plus...maybe a new, expanded Museum!”

MINUTES

“Doctor, you are the most experienced UFOlogist on staff. What do you make of the Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’?”

“And I will give you the most definitive answer: I don’t know! And neither does anybody else!”

“Forty years ago, then the ‘Boomerang’ could have been Top Secret stealth tests?”

“Or an alien warship carrying a bloodthirsty army that would kill us all!”

“What’s your point?”

“Simply this: We don’t know!”

“What impact will the Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’ and your museum have on the ‘UFO Community’?”

“The days of ‘UFOlogy’ are over. No more ‘problem’ or ‘crisis’! UAR is the mystery of the 21st Century, and we’ve got it!”

“How will you attempt to solve the UAR ‘mystery’?”

“Hard work + hard science! No more silly ‘flying saucer’ hysteria or crazy conspiracy theories. We have to be taken seriously!”

PINE BUSH UFO MUSEUM

“In other words, you, your team and the museum want respect!”

“Damn right we do! And we’re going to earn it through the scientific method!”

“We’re either going forward or we’re going back. There’s no standing still.”

“Cleaning up UFOlogy’s mess? How?”

“By engaging and educating our patrons, especially young people. No more ‘little green men’ and bug-eyed monsters!”

“Are we alone in the Universe? Finding out for sure is our quest!”

“Space rock or space ship? An exciting new beginning in the study of Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon or the same old UFOlogy?”

“Only time will tell. You know what they say about boomerangs...”

“Sorry to have to tell you this, but there’s not a scintilla of evidence of life beyond our earth.”

“That cold hard fact means that the Pine Bush ‘Boomerang’ is a uniquely shaped space rock on a huge elliptical orbit and absolutely nothing more.”

“We cannot confirm what it was.”

“Exo-biology, the study of life on other worlds, is a science without data.”
